

Philip Vanstraelen

Phillip holds a Postgraduate degree in Corporate Finance and a Master in Economics & Tourism from the Catholic University of Leuven. Philip started his career in 2008 at Deloitte Consulting focused on commercial strategy across various industries.

In 2014 he joined UCB Biopharma as within the global market access department, over the last 10 years he held several global, regional and local roles with increasing responsibility. Since September 2024 he took on the role of General Manager Benelux.